

Ar 795
3, A67
v. 2/2
cop. 3

FEB 10 1971

SOUTH CAROLINA
ARTS COMMISSION

ARTS-LETTER

VOL. 2, NO. 2 NOV. - DEC., 1968 Sadie Jenkins Battle, Editor

SUCCEEDING

Arts Commission members whose terms have expired, E. Milby Burton of Charleston, C. W. Cole of Aiken and Dr. Keller Freeman (Mrs. David L.) of Greenville were recently appointed to the South Carolina Arts Commission by Governor McNair.

Mr. Burton, director of the Charleston Museum, is a recognized authority on several aspects of the arts. Mr. Cole is superintendent of the personnel department of E.I. DuPont de Nemours & Co., Inc., Savannah River Plant in Aiken, and directs theatrical productions in the Aiken-Augusta area. He most recently directed "Funny Girl" by the Augusta Players. Dr. Freeman, a former professor of intellectual philosophy at Furman University, last year served as curator of education at Greenville County Museum of Art.

The new appointees succeed William S. Dowis, Jr., Florence; Emmett Robinson, Charleston and Mrs. Jack C. Ward, Greenville.

WE SALUTE

South Carolina artists Don Williams of Gaffney and Bonnie Nazarenko of Columbia. In the Winston-Salem, N.C. Gallery of Contemporary Art's 29th juried show in October, Williams' "Midwest Landscape" won the first-honors $400 cash award. A Nazarenko work was also chosen for the show.

An Open Letter

to those interested in the Arts:

At the time you receive this ARTS-LETTER, the State Budget and Control Board is considering requests from state agencies for funding of 1969-70 programs. The South Carolina Arts Commission is funded primarily through the State General Appropriations Bill. The Budget and Control Board studies requests from agencies and makes its recommendations to the Legislature.

The Budget and Control Board has a momentous job in determining how much each agency should receive each year. The Board must take many things into consideration when making these decisions. We think it might be helpful for the Budget and Control Board and your representatives to know what you think of what the Arts Commission has been doing for the past year.

If you like what we have been doing, and would like to see the program continued and expanded, why not drop a line to the Governor as Chairman of the State Budget and Control Board, and tell him about it? You might send copies of that letter, or original letters, to your county representatives, because it is they who finally vote on passage of the Bill.

Perhaps you don't like what we're doing, and can suggest ways in which we can be of better service to the people of the State. If this is the case, write to us and tell us about it. We admit that we don't know everything and we're very receptive to new ideas.

Sincerely,

David C. Sennema

DAVID C. SENNEMA
Executive Director
S. C. Arts Commission

THE GREENVILLE COUNTY MUSEUM OF ART AND ITS DIRECTOR, JACK A. MORRIS, JR. NOT SHOWN IN THIS PICTURE, IS THE SITE OF THE FUTURE EDUCATIONAL BUILDING, AN ACHIEVEMENT INVOLVING WIDESPREAD COMMUNITY EFFORT.

TRAVELING ART

exhibitions new for 1968-69 include the USC Touring Art Exhibits; Columbia Museum of Art's fine art reproductions and the Spartanburg City Schools' new Traveling Exhibit. The Arts Commission has details.

ON THEIR WAY

are construction projects from arts centers to theaters, throughout the state.

Ground was broken this Fall for the Converse Fine Arts Center.

Hartsville's Center Theater renovation project, and the new Sumter Little Theatre, are moving along, while Florence Little Theatre is nearing completion.

At Claflin College in Orangeburg, observing its centennial in 1969, this Fall marks the opening of the new Fine Arts Center.

FAMED ACTRESS

Mildred Dunnock, star in "Death of a Salesman" in the film and during its long Broadway run, will join with director-scene designer Norris Houghton for the S.C. Theater Association's second annual workshop, Feb. 14-16 at Dock Street Theatre in Charleston.

Miss Dunnock's and Mr. Houghton's appearance at the meeting was made possible with S.C. Arts Commission assistance. Most of their time will be spent in intensive workshop sessions with ten-minute scenes presented by South Carolina producing groups.

SCTA president Donald B. McKellar, chairman of the department of Drama at Lander College in Greenwood, urges all interested South Carolinians to join the SCTA so that they may attend the February workshop free of charge.

CHRISTMAS

gifts with the spark of originality abound in South Carolina. An original painting by a South Carolinian; sculpture; craftwork; pottery to hold and use as well as look at, may all be at a nearby art store or museum--often at prices within a Christmas-gift budget. Books by S.C. writers also come in a wide variety and price range.

Then consider the pleasure offered by a subscription to a local drama or music series. Many of these around the state are still open for new members. For an idea of the high-calibre entertainment some of these series will offer, check the calendar of events in this ARTS-LETTER.

GREETINGS

in the spirit of Christmas, as expressed in art masterpieces, may be no farther than the art store downtown, or your community's art museum. The Columbia Museum of Art, for example, features a full-color reproduction of its Botticelli fresco from the Kress Renaissance collection, on cards for the Christmas season.

TO

our surprise and gratification, the S.C. Arts Commission recently received its first contribution from private sources. A check came to the Commission from Dr. David E. Finley, native of York now living in Washington, D.C.

Dr. Finley, first director of the National Gallery of Art and a former head of the Commission of Fine Arts in Washington, was dedicatory speaker at the 1950 opening of the Columbia Museum of Art. He had led in obtaining Dr. John Richard Craft as Museum Director, and later was influential in South Carolina's receiving the invaluable Renaissance Collection from the Samuel H. Kress Foundation.

YOU

may at some time contemplate giving to the growth of the arts in South Carolina. At this time, all gifts to the Arts Commission will be applied to the State Art Collection, unless otherwise specified.

While the Commission is very much interested in receiving funds from business and industry for further development of this and other projects, the Commission feels that first priority should go to supporting your local arts organizations.

Therefore, any funds solicited for Arts Commission programs are sought only when they do not supplant contributions at the local level.

Anyone interested in supporting the programs of the Commission may send checks made out to the South Carolina Arts Commission, to our offices at 1001 Main Street. Names of those contributing $25 or more to the State Art Collection will be carried in a permanent catalog which will accompany the Collection.

SCMTA

Convention plans for Nov. 14-16 in Charleston include a piano concert by Edward Kilenyi; a string workshop; an organ recital and/or workshop and a Cadek piano workshop.

Dr. Virgil Smith, head of the Department of Music at Coker College, is president of the South Carolina Music Teachers' Association. Its annual convention is being held in Charleston with S. C. Arts Commission assistance.

A CITATION

for photographic excellence has been awarded to Greenville PIEDMONT writer Robert Smeltzer, by the National Federation of Music Clubs.

Mr. Smeltzer's award-winning pictures, of the Crescent Little Symphony in rehearsal, have attracted attention over the nation.

ARTS EVENTS TO ENJOY IN S.C.

DANCE

Nov. 17: HAMPTON: Coleen Corkre Dance Company; The Community Concert Association of Hampton and Allendale Counties.

Dec. 2 & 3; 5-7; 10 & 11: CHARLESTON: "The Nutcracker"; Charleston Civic Ballet, Municipal Auditorium.

Dec. 12: GREENVILLE: "The Nutcracker" by the Greenville Civic Ballet; Memorial Auditorium, 8:15 PM.

Dec. 13-15: COLUMBIA: "Cinderella" by the Columbia City Ballet; Dreher High School Auditorium.

DRAMA

Through Nov. 2: COLUMBIA: "Royal Gambit"; the Columbia College Players; Cottingham Theatre, 8 PM.

Nov. 1 & 2: CHARLESTON: "You Know I Can't Hear You When the Water's Running"; Broadway show at Charleston Municipal Auditorium.

Nov. 3: COLUMBIA: An evening of one-act plays, Workshop Theater

Nov. 7-9: CLEMSON: "Look Homeward, Angel"; Clemson Little Theatre.

Nov. 7-9: SPARTANBURG: "Macbeth"; Converse College Palmetto Players; Chapel Theatre, Converse, 8 PM.

Nov. 8-11: COLUMBIA: "Marco Polo"; Children's Theatre of Town Theatre.

Nov. 13-15: ROCK HILL: "Theatre of the Absurd" program, with plays by Ionesco and Beckett; Winthrop Theatre, Johnson Hall, Winthrop College.

Nov. 14: CHARLESTON: "Murder in the Cathedral" by T.S. Eliot; the Citadel Fine Arts Series, Mark Clark Hall Auditorium.

Through Nov. 15: COLUMBIA: "A Thousand Clowns"; the Off Broadway Dinner Theatre.

Nov. 15: COLUMBIA: "Othello"; the National Shakespeare Company; University of S.C. Student Union Artist Series; Drayton Hall, 8 PM.

Nov. 21-23: GAFFNEY: "Take Her, She's Mine"; College-Community Theatre of Gaffney, Fullerton Auditorium.

Nov. 21-23: GREENVILLE: "Next Time I'll Sing to You"; Furman University Theatre Guild, McAlister Auditorium, 8:15 PM.

Nov. 21-24: COLUMBIA: "Hamlet"; South Carolina Theatre Company, Ft. Jackson Theatre No. 4.

Nov. 22-23: HARTSVILLE: Coker College Players production; Coker College Auditorium, 8 PM.

Nov. 25 & 26: CHARLESTON: Two Shakespeare plays by Queen Elizabeth's Royal Windsor Players, Charleston Municipal Auditorium.

Nov. 27: CHARLESTON: "The Apple Tree"; Jewish Community Center Special Series, Charleston Municipal Auditorium.

Nov. 28 & 29: GREENVILLE: "Prologue, A Drama of Jon Hus", premiere of drama by Dr. Bob Jones, Jr.; Bob Jones University Classic Players; Rodeheaver Auditorium, 8 PM.

November, to be scheduled: CHARLESTON: "Wait Until Dark"; Footlight Players in the Dock St. Theatre. SPARTANBURG-GREENVILLE; Country Dinner Theatre production.

Dec. 3-21: GREENVILLE: "The Madwoman of Chaillot"; Greenville Little Theatre.

Dec. 6 & 7; 10-14: COLUMBIA: "Hogan's Goat"; Town Theatre, Columbia.

Dec. 16: COLUMBIA: "The World of Charles Dickens"; characterizations by Dr. George Curry; bonus for Town Theatre members (membership open).

December, to be scheduled: ANDERSON: "Brigadoon"; the Anderson Little Theater Guild. BEAUFORT: "The Chalk Garden"; Beaufort Little Theatre. CLEMSON: "Christmas Nightingale"; the Clemson Area Youth Theatre. SUMTER: Musical by Sumter Little Theatre.

FILM

Nov. 4: GREENVILLE: "India: Writings on the Sand"; Furman University Asian-African Studies - Life and Culture of India; Classroom Bldg., 7:30.

Nov. 6: COLUMBIA: "Tarzan" - 1918 version; "Early Beginnings of American Film Making"; Columbia Museum of Art "7 Arts Seminar", 8:30 PM.

Nov. 13: GREENVILLE: "Ikiru" (Japan, 1952); Greenville County Museum of Art Film Friends Series, 8 PM.

Nov. 20: COLUMBIA: "American Image"; film, and discussion by Dr. Robert Ochs; Columbia Museum of Art "7 Arts Seminar", 8:30 PM.

Nov. 21: CHARLESTON: "Jules and Jim"; College of Charleston Cinema Series at the Garden Theater, 8 PM.

FILM, continued

Dec. 5: CHARLESTON: "The Shop on Main Street"; College of Charleston Cinema Series; Garden Theater, 8 PM.

December, to be scheduled:
GREENVILLE: Children's Film Festival; Greenville County Museum of Art Film Friends Series.

LECTURES

Nov. 3: SPARTANBURG: "Greece"; slide-illustrated lecture by Ray Cash; Spartanburg Arts Council Travel Series at Spartanburg County Library, 3:30 PM.

Nov. 4: CHARLESTON: The Canterbury Tales by Chaucer, Dr. James Geraty Harrison, speaker; "What Makes a Book Live?" series, Charleston County Library, 8:30 PM.

Nov. 13: COLUMBIA: Poetry reading and discussion by Phyllis Giese; Columbia Museum of Art "7 Arts Seminar", 8:30.

Nov. 14: GREENVILLE: "France"; lecture with visuals by Miss Agnes Sherer; Greenville County Library "Stay-at-Home Tour", 7:30 PM.

Nov. 19: GREENVILLE: Lecture by Baroness von Trapp of the Trapp Family Singers; Greenville Friends of the Library series.

Dec. 11: ROCK HILL: Charles Abrams, chairman of Columbia University School of Architecture; Winthrop College Lecture Series.

MUSIC

Nov. 1 & 2: COLUMBIA: "L'Elisir d'Amore"; Columbia Lyric Theatre, Dreher High School Auditorium, 8 PM.

Nov. 2: GREENWOOD: Atlanta Symphony conducted by Robert Shaw; Greenwood Community Concert, Greenwood High School Auditorium.

Nov. 3: COLUMBIA: John Williams, pianist; Columbia Museum of Art, 4 PM.

Nov. 3: GREENVILLE: Choral works of the 19th and 20th centuries; Westminster Presbyterian Church, 4 PM.

Nov. 4: FLORENCE: The Florence Symphony Orchestra, Franklin West, conductor.

Nov. 4: GAFFNEY: Asheville Symphony, Joseph Fischer conducting; Gaffney-Limestone College Town & Gown Series, Fullerton Auditorium, Limestone.

Nov. 5: SPARTANBURG: Prof. George Lucktenberg, harpsichordist; Wofford College, Leonard Auditorium, 11 AM.

Nov. 7: GREENVILLE: The Greenville Symphony Orchestra, Peter Rickett, conductor, with guest pianist Valentin Gheorghiu; Magill Music Hall, Civic Center.

Nov. 7: ROCK HILL: The Roger Wagner Chorale; Winthrop College Artist Series, Byrnes Auditorium.

Nov. 8: GREENVILLE: The Roger Wagner Chorale; Bob Jones University Opera, Concert and Drama Series (season membership).

Nov. 8: GREENVILLE: Concert by Furman University Concert Choir, Dr. Milburn Price, director; McAlister Auditorium, 8:15 PM.

Nov. 8 & 9, 22 & 23: CHARLESTON: "The Merry Widow"; Charleston Opera Company; Garden Theater, 8:30 PM.

Nov. 9: CHARLESTON: "Up with People" concert, Charleston Municipal Auditorium.

Nov. 10: CHARLESTON: Alard String Quartet; Charleston Chamber Music Concert, Gibbes Art Gallery.

Nov. 10: COLUMBIA: U.S.C. Chamber Music concert; Columbia Museum of Art Sunday Concert at 4.

Nov. 11: GREENVILLE: Gregg - Smith Singers; Furman University Fine Arts Series, McAlister, 8:15 PM.

Nov. 11: ORANGEBURG: Duke Ellington Sacred Concert, with the choirs of Claflin and S.C. State Colleges plus soloists. Joint presentation of S.C. State and Claflin Colleges, in S.C. State Field House, 8 PM.

Nov. 12: CLINTON: Dik Visser, classical guitarist; Presbyterian College, Belk Auditorium, 10 AM.

Nov. 12: SUMTER: Beverly Wolff, mezzo-soprano; Sumter Community Concert Association (season membership).

Nov. 14: SPARTANBURG: Converse - Wofford Concert Band; Spartanburg Music Foundation concert, Twichell Auditorium.

Nov. 17: GREENVILLE: James Houlik, saxophonist from E.Carolina College; Greenville County Museum of Art Sunday concert.

Nov. 17: NEWBERRY: Columbia College Choir, Guthrie Darr, director, with "Columbia Belles" handbell choir, and soloists Richard Veale, tenor, and Walker Breland, organist; Central Methodist Church, 4 PM.

Nov. 18: SPARTANBURG: Converse College Opera Workshop, Twichell Auditorium, 8 PM.

Nov. 19: DUE WEST: Marilyn Mason, organist; Erskine College Fine Arts Series, Lesesne Auditorium, 8 PM.

Nov. 21: CLEMSON: Yehudi and Hepzibah Menuhin; Clemson University Concert Series; Field House, 8 PM.

Nov. 24: COLUMBIA: Marilyn Neeley, pianist; Columbia Museum of Art Sunday Concert at 4.

Nov. 24: MANNING: Columbia College Choir, Guthrie Darr, director, with "Columbia Belles" handbell choir, Richard Veale, tenor and Walker Breland, organist; Manning Methodist Church, 7:30 PM.

Nov. 25 & 26: GREENVILLE: Youth concerts by the Greenville Symphony; McAlister Auditorium.

Nov. 25 & 26: Spartanburg: "Pops" concert by Spartanburg Symphony, Spartanburg High School Chorus and soloists; Twichell Auditorium.

Nov. 26: GREENVILLE: Goldovsky Grand Opera Theatre; Greenville Community Concert Association; Memorial Aud.

Nov. 30: CHARLESTON: Eleanor Steber, soprano and Blanche Thebom, mezzo-soprano; soloists with the Greater Charleston Symphony Orchestra, Lucien DeGroote conductor; Municipal Auditorium.

Nov. 30 & Dec. 1: GREENVILLE: "The Messiah"; Bob Jones University, Rodeheaver Auditorium. (Sat. Nov. 30 at 8 PM; Sun. Dec. 1 at 4 PM.)

Dec. 1: COLUMBIA: "The Messiah", Allen University Choir, John W. Hunter, director; Allen University Auditorium, 6:30 PM.

Dec. 1: FLORENCE: "The Messiah" by Florence area singers with the Florence Symphony Orchestra; annual Christmas oratorio sponsored by the Aiken Foundation; Moore Junior High School, 8 PM.

Dec. 2: AIKEN: Dorian Quintet, woodwind chamber ensemble; Aiken Community Concert Series.

Dec. 2: NORTH CHARLESTON: Concert by the Greater Charleston Choral Society, Mylus C. McDonald, director.

Dec. 3: COLUMBIA: Christmas concert by Columbia College Music Department; College Place Methodist Church, 8 PM.

Dec. 3: COLUMBIA: Women's Symphony Association Music Appreciation Luncheon, Town House. Walker Breland, Columbia College music faculty, discusses Columbia Philharmonic Orchestra concert for Dec. 7.

Dec. 3: FLORENCE: Dorian Quintet; Florence Community Concert, Moore Junior High School Auditorium, 8 PM.

Dec. 5: HARTSVILLE: Dorian Quintet; Coker College Auditorium, 8 PM.

Dec. 6: GREENVILLE: A Capella Choir Christmas Concert; North Greenville Junior College; Turner Auditorium, 7:30 PM.

Dec. 6 & 7: GREENVILLE: Bob Jones University Voice Department recital; Concert Center, 8 PM.

Dec. 7: COLUMBIA: Columbia Philharmonic Orchestra, Dr. Arthur M. Fraser conductor; Lanny Palmer, soprano, with the Columbia College Choir, Guthrie Darr conducting; also Nancy E. Hill, pianist, winner of 1968 Young Artists Competition; Dreher High Auditorium, 8 PM.

Dec. 8: CHARLESTON: "The Messiah"; 150-voice chorus from Baptist College and the Charleston area, directed by Vernon W. Weston; Charleston Municipal Auditorium, 4 PM.

Dec. 8: CONWAY: "The Messiah"; Grand Strand Choral Society, Dr. Kenneth Baldwin, director; Myrtle Beach Convention Center, 3 PM.

Dec. 8: GREENVILLE: "The Messiah"; combined choirs of Greenville and Furman University; McAlister Auditorium, 3:30

Dec. 8: SPARTANBURG: Christmas Music Festival; Memorial Auditorium, 3 and 8 PM.

Dec. 8: SPARTANBURG: "Nine Lessons And Carols"; Christmas Festival; Spartanburg Junior College Gym, 8 PM.

Dec. 9: COLUMBIA: Gold and Fizdale, duo pianists; Columbia Music Festival Series; Township Auditorium, 8 PM.

Dec. 10: GREENVILLE: Nedda Casei, Metropolitan Opera mezzo-soprano; soloist with the Bob Jones University Orchestra; BJU Opera, Concert and Drama Series, Rodeheaver Auditorium (season membership).

MUSIC, continued

Dec. 10: GREENVILLE: Vivaldi "Gloria" and Christmas carols from around the world; Greenville Civic Chorale with string orchestra, Dr. Milburn Price, director; McAlister Auditorium.

Dec. 10: SPARTANBURG: Program of seasonal music, Wofford College Department of Music; Memorial Auditorium, 11 AM.

Dec. 12: SPARTANBURG: "Festival of Lessons and Carols", Converse College Chorale and Chorus; Twichell Auditorium, 8 PM.

Dec. 13: GREENVILLE: Bob Jones University Organ Department recital; Rodeheaver Auditorium, 8 PM.

Dec. 13, 15 & 17: GREENVILLE: "The Singing Christmas Tree", with chorus accompanied by the Crescent Little Symphony, William H. Thomas, conductor; McAlister Auditorium, Furman.

Dec. 15: COLUMBIA: "The Messiah", Columbia Choral Society with orchestral accompaniment, Guthrie Darr directing, Township Auditorium.

Dec. 15: GREENVILLE: "The First No-well", a nativity play for soloists, chorus and string orchestra by Ralph Vaughn Williams; Westminster Presbyterian Church.

Dec. 17: HARTSVILLE: Annual Christmas concert by Coker College Glee Club, 8 PM.

Dec. 21 & 22: AIKEN: "Amahl and the Night Visitors"; the First Baptist Church, 8 PM.

December, to be scheduled:
GREENVILLE: Sunday afternoon concert for December, at Greenville County Museum of Art.
ROCK HILL: "The Messiah" by Rock Hill Choral Society.

VISUAL ARTS

Nov. 1-27: COLUMBIA: "Yugoslavia II" (Graphics); University of South Carolina Student Union art exhibit; Russell House, U.S.C.

Nov. 1-30: FLORENCE: Drawings by Mrs. Genevieve Willcox Chandler, Murrell's Inlet; the Florence Museum.

Nov. 1-30: SPARTANBURG: "Textile Design", local textile industry; Arts Center, 151 N. Fairview Ave., daily except Monday.

Through Nov. 2: COLUMBIA: "Charles A. Turner - A Survey", Columbia Museum of Art.

Nov. 2: COLUMBIA: 4th Annual Sidewalk Show held by St. Andrews Woman's Club outside Security Federal Building, Broad River Road.

Nov. 2-14: CLINTON: Contemporary Prints; Presbyterian College Art Exhibits, Library Gallery.

Nov. 2-30: GREENVILLE: 18th Annual Guild of S. C. Artists Exhibition; Greenville County Museum of Art.

Nov. 4-23: CLEMSON: "Fountains", also "Vacation Homes"; Rudolph Lee Gallery, Clemson University School of Architecture.

Nov. 4-29: COLUMBIA: Photography and sculpture (recent works by Clemson University students and professors); Huntington Galleries, McMaster College, U.S.C. Department of Art.

Nov. 4-23: DUE WEST: Paintings by James B. Moore and Evalyn J. Dyer, Charleston: Erskine College Exhibition Center.

Nov. 4-19: SPARTANBURG: Art exhibit, photographs by Rene Royards: Aug. W. Smith Co. Gallery, daily except Sundays.

Nov. 6: SPARTANBURG: "Art-In II, Political Art and You", by guest speaker. For Spartanburg Art Association members; membership open. Friendship Room, Hillcrest, 10 AM.

Through Nov. 10: CHARLESTON: One-man show by Ray Goodbred, Gibbes Art Gallery.

Through Nov. 10: COLUMBIA: "Section d'Or"; Columbia Museum of Art.

Nov. 14-20: HARTSVILLE: 3rd Annual Art Show, sponsored by Friends of the Library, in Hartsville Memorial Library.

Through Nov. 16: CHARLESTON: Work of Corrie McCallum, William Halsey and Cynthia Young: Charleston Naval Base Officers' Club.

Through Nov. 24: CHARLESTON: "Sources for Tomorrow", contemporary American art from the James A. Michener Foundation; Gibbes Art Gallery.

Through Nov. 24: COLUMBIA: "Contemporary Enamels"; Columbia Museum of Art.

Nov. 24-Dec. 14: GREENVILLE: The Dil-lard Collection; "Art on Paper", at Greenville County Museum of Art.

Nov. 26-Jan. 6, 1969: CHARLESTON: Leonardo da Vinci models based on sketch book drawings; also on exhibit, print show for collectors; Gibbes Art Gallery.

Dec. 1-14: CLINTON: Student painting and drawing; Presbyterian College Library Gallery.

Dec. 1-31: FLORENCE: Joint art show by Dorothy and Hilton Leech; the Florence Museum.

Dec. 1-15: GREENVILLE-SPARTANBURG Airport: Art exhibition by Betty Jane Bramlett, Spartanburg.

Dec. 1-31: SPARTANBURG: "Christmas Art" by local artists; Arts Center, 151 N. Fairview Ave., daily except Monday.

Dec. 2-13: COLUMBIA: Annual Christmas Bazaar by University of S. C. art students; Huntington Galleries, McMaster College, U.S.C. Department of Art.

Dec. 3-18: DUE WEST: Embroideries by children from Chijnya, Peru, also hand-made Christmas decorations by Mrs. Ray Young of Due West; Erskine College Exhibition Center.

Dec. 3-31: GREENVILLE: 3rd annual Christmas trees exhibit; "Trees for the Young in Heart", also portraits, still lifes and landscapes by Bob Bruns; Greenville County Museum of Art.

Dec. 4: SPARTANBURG: "Art-In II, The American Portraitist"; Dr. Walter Hood, Art Department, Converse College. (See Nov. 6.)

Dec. 5-Jan. 12, 1969: CLEMSON: School of Architecture students' work; Rudolph Lee Gallery, Clemson University.

Dec. 9-23: SPARTANBURG: Art exhibit by Artists Guild members; Aug. W. Smith Co. Gallery, daily except Sunday.

Dec. 15-31: GREENVILLE-SPARTANBURG Airport; exhibition by Mrs. Margaret Gilliam.

December, to be scheduled:
CHARLESTON: (through Jan. 12, 1969); "Radius 5", Smithsonian exhibition of Op-Art paintings, sculpture and construction; Gibbes Art Gallery.

1001 MAIN STREET COLUMBIA, S. C. 29201

BULK RATE
U. S. POSTAGE
PAID
COLUMBIA, S. C.
Permit No. 893